Your membership is important!

Are you making the most of your TCA membership? Understanding the benefits and becoming an active member are two ways of maximizing your return on investment.

TCA Annual Achievement Awards - As a TCA Member, you have the opportunity to submit for, and receive, highly acclaimed TCA Achievement Awards, which will provide you with industry and world-wide recognition.

Supervisor and Company Certification - The cooperative supervisor program with ACI and the new TCA Company Certification Program provide your company with opportunities to certify your organization and your personnel as Tilt-Up Supervisors and Technicians and then leverage that status through TCA marketing and specifications.

TCA Member Database - Becoming a TCA member means that you will gain exposure through the TCA Membership Directory and the TCA website, providing referrals for your company.

Government Project Leads - The TCA receives immediate notification of new government projects and passes that information on to interested members.

Comprehensive Tilt-Up Resources - As a TCA member you receive preferred pricing on "The Architecture of Tilt-Up", "The Construction of Tilt-Up" and other industry leading publications, multimedia resources, and promotional materials.

Education and Networking - Members receive preferred pricing on our wide variety of educational and networking events throughout the year, like the TCA Annual Convention, local and regional seminars, the TCA Annual Meeting and Breakfast (held each year during the World of Concrete), and other valuable events.

Notes: 1. Local Associate is defined as distributing in home state and any adjoining states only. 2. Professional Firm is defined as a State or Province licensed firm practicing engineering or architecture. 3. Consultant is defined as a provider of professional services or expertise that is not a licensed engineer or architect. 4. Specialty Trade is a category of membership for trades other than concrete that frequent Tilt-Up projects. 5. Sustaining Member is a member of ANY aforementioned category wanting to identify a higher level of commitment to the Tilt-Up industry. Please call the TCA at (319) 895-6911 for more information on SUSTAINING MEMBERS.
